Billy O'Callaghan Life Sentences

9.30 | 6:00-7:00 pm With Dear Butte: Festival of Irish Writing & Corner Bookstore

At just sixteen, Nancy leaves the small island of Cape Clear for the mainland, the only member of her family to survive the effects of the Great Famine. Finding work in a grand house on the edge of Cork City, she is irrepressibly drawn to the charismatic gardener Michael Egan, sparking a love affair and a devastating chain of events that continues to unfold over three generations. Spanning more than a century, Life Sentences is the unforgettable journey of a family hungry for redemption, and determined against all odds to be free.

John Green Everything is Tuberculosis

10.21 | 6:00-7:00pm

In 2019, author John Green met Henry Reider, a young tuberculosis patient at Lakka Government Hospital in Sierra Leone. John became fast friends with Henry, a boy with spindly legs and a big, goofy smile. In the years since that first visit to Lakka, Green has become a vocal advocate for increased access to treatment and wider awareness of the healthcare inequities that allow this curable, preventable infectious disease to also be the deadliest, killing over a million people every year. In Everything Is Tuberculosis, John tells Henry's story, woven through with the scientific and social histories of how tuberculosis has shaped our world—and how our choices will shape the future of tuberculosis.

Stephen Graham Jones The Buffalo Hunter Hunter

11.18 | 6:00-7:00pm Collaboration with Butte Native Wellness Center

In 1912, a Lutheran pastor records a series of confessional conversations with Good Stab, a Blackfeet man whose extraordinary story stretches back to the 1870 Marias Massacre, when U.S. soldiers killed more than 200 Blackfeet people in Montana. Good Stab recounts how he became an immortal, vampire-like figure and the violent path that followed as he sought justice and revenge. Blending Blackfeet history with supernatural horror, The Buffalo Hunter Hunter explores colonial violence, survival, memory, faith, and the lasting consequences of historical injustice.
